ROSLINDALE HIGH SCHOOL

POPLAR STREET

ROSLINDALE, MASSACHUSETTS

1966

William J. Cunningham
Head Master

To you, the members of the class of 1966, I extend my congratulations on your graduation from Roslindale High School. Together with your parents, relatives, and friends, I wish success for each of you in attaining your future goals. This success, this realization of your ambitions, depends entirely on you.

When we graduate you, we have but placed your foot on the lowest rung of a long ladder. How high you go depends on your native intelligence, your moral qualities, your initiative, your drive. Meet each problem head-on; study each and decide sensibly on your course of action. Success in life is but a constant, cumulative repetition of sensibly determined minor decisions.

Your years here have been only a beginning. In the years immediately ahead, whether in college, in the service, in private life, or in business, the precepts we have taught you will be tested. We hope we taught them well; you will find the answer in the future.

Who put the glue on the ball?

Hey, I found my pen!

Hi, mom!

On your knees when you speak to me!

Oops! Wrong basket!

Please don't leave me!

Paula strikes again!

Boy, that wire is strong!

Ohhh! I cut my thumb.

Now let me see, 3 plus 1 is . . .

No, Miss C., you can't keep your sneakers in the safe!

Wait 'till next year.

Follow the yellow brick road.

Now, this is what the bomb will look like.

If I ever catch you boys making a still again—!

We quit!

The human computer

Well, for 25¢ you can't go wrong . . . I think?

Future leaders of America?

The same to you!

Variety is the spice of life.

No, Edward, MAD Magazine is not suitable for a book report.

Better never late.

But Mary, Harvard is for men only.

Hey! There's a girl in my locker!

You rang?

Which hand has the M & M's candy?

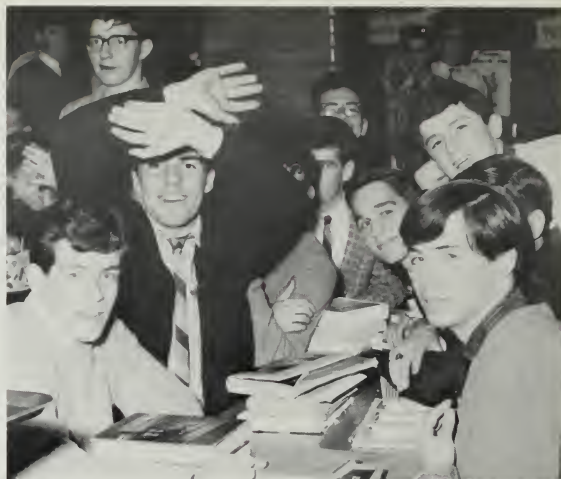

No, Miss Hamrock, I'll not open your locker.

It works! . . . Mr. Cunningham's disappeared!

I have how many books over-due?

I confess!

That old gang of mine!

37% Fewer cavities!

A scene from "Lost in Space."

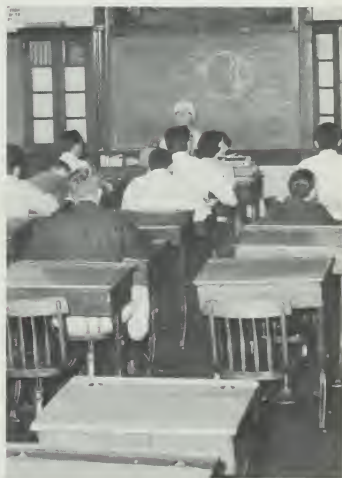

Will the real teacher please step forward?

Beaten by the Keyettes?—Impossible.

Curley, This is a stick-up.

Now class, an eye for an eye . . .
